

I listen to K-Love all the time. It is the one station that has a positive influence on the community. No other station has such an affect. And in our country, I seriously think this is needed.